

AAUW GROSSE POINTE ART CONTEST

FOR TEENS 14-18

THEME: Listen to Women – The American Association of University Women Grosse Pointe invites young artists to explore the achievements and contributions of women and through their art shine a light on the issues women have faced and continue to face today.

ELIGIBILITY: Participation is open to artists 14-18. 2D and 3D works are welcome, however 2D work must be mounted or matted or framed to facilitate hanging. Commercial kits, models and hobby crafts are not eligible.

AAUW GP reserves the right to disqualify any artwork submitted, including artwork deemed inappropriate for young viewers. Entries will be handled with all possible care, however, AAUW and Ewald Public Library are not responsible for loss or damage.

Entries must be delivered by the artist between 1 and 5p.m. on Saturday, October 22, 2022, to the Ewald Public Library, 15175 E. Jefferson, Grosse Pointe Park, MI 48230. Artists will be photographed with their artwork at that time.

JUROR AWARDS: Best of Show $200, Second Place $150 Third Place $100

Art pieces will be judged on both the art and the description of how it relates to the theme. The primary criterion will be the message of the piece. Does the piece arrest the viewer enough to compel them to linger on it, want to read the artist's notes and ultimately cause them to remember the piece and the message.

JUROR: Tresa Baldas Award winning Detroit Free Press journalist.
